Consent Agenda

A Marks of Mission

Resolution 16.xx: C1 Mission

The Anglican Consultative Council

1. acknowledges with gratitude the work of the Anglican Witness Core Group accomplished in the last six years and particularly the work of advancing discipleship; and
2. requests the Standing Committee to work with the Secretary General and Mission Department to effect a Season of Intentional Discipleship for a period covering ACCs 16, 17,18; and report back at ACC-17 on progress.

Resolution 16.xx: C2 Women and Men in Church and Society

The Anglican Consultative Council

urges the provinces of the Anglican Communion to continue to work at empowering girls and boys, women and men to live and work in relationships that reflect Christian values of love, dignity, and justice, by;

- fostering awareness of harmful gender norms, cultural practices and unjust power relations;
- encouraging and supporting church leaders to take responsibility for modelling just relationships and, within their spheres of influence, for promoting gender equality, and for leading their people in challenging and ending gender-based violence in all its forms;
- transforming structures that prevent women and girls from offering their gifts and talents in the Church and in their communities;
- fully involving men and boys as well as women and girls in exploring and redefining just and equal gender relationships;
- exploring how liturgies, contextual Bible study and existing ministries such as preparation for Baptism, Confirmation and Marriage can serve in the promotion of right relationship and intergenerational teaching about the God-given dignity and status of all persons.

Resolution 16.xx:C4 International Anglican Family Network

The Anglican Consultative Council

1. welcomes the work done by the International Anglican Family Network (IAFN) as it networks across the Communion to celebrate the God-given potential of the family as a source of thriving relationships, identity, belonging, discipleship and reconciliation; and
2. calls on the provinces of the Anglican Communion to support IAFN in its efforts to
 - safeguard children's identity, dignity and security through practical means such as birth registration and in responding to the abuse of trafficking and any other form of exploitation
 - strengthen the family as a foundation for human flourishing and to build up resilience to cope with change and challenge
 - work for reconciliation and justice in the home and the community.

Resolution 16.xx: C5 Response to Global Climate Change

The Anglican Consultative Council

1. receives and commends for study The World Is Our Host: A Call to Urgent Action for Climate Justice, a statement from seventeen Anglican archbishops and bishops who met at Volmoed, South Africa, February 2015;
2. notes the dire consequences of climate change for future generations and for all of God's creation;
3. recognizes the global urgency of the crisis of climate change and its impact on the well-being of all people, especially the most vulnerable in societies;
4. encourages Anglicans everywhere to join in pastoral, priestly, and prophetic action as we seek together the redemption of all things in Christ by:
 - praying and fasting, including special fasts on the first day of each month and a 'carbon fast' during Lent;
 - designing and taking strategic actions toward sustainability and resilience in our dioceses, communities and congregations, taking into account local ecological and economic contexts and opportunities;
 - reviewing and making necessary changes to church investments to ensure these are visibly supportive of a move towards a low carbon economy;
 - making energy efficiency and access to renewable energy a priority in all church operations;
 - teaching the Fifth Mark of Mission in theological and church-sponsored educational bodies;
 - urging political, economic, social, and religious leaders in our various constituencies to address the climate change crisis as the most pressing moral issue of our day consistent with the United Nations' 21st Climate Change Conference, Paris 2015;
 - recognizing and supporting indigenous peoples' right to free, prior and informed consent in decisions concerning the environment and the well-being of communities; and
 - advocating for sustainable water, food, and agricultural practices in our communities consistent with the United Nations' Sustainable Development Goals.
5. requests provinces of the Anglican Communion to consider appointing a contact person to the Anglican Communion Environmental Network who will report to the Network on actions taken so that a full report may be made to the next ACC.

Resolution 16.xx: C6 Gender Equality and Justice

The Anglican Consultative Council

1. recommits itself to resolutions ACC13.31 and ACC14.33 calling for equal representation of women in decision-making bodies; to ACC15.07 concerning the elimination of all forms of gender-based and domestic violence; and to ACC15.10 concerning the ending and preventing of the trafficking of persons; and
2. upholds just relationships between women and men as a reflection of our Christian belief that women and men are equally made in the divine image; and
3. celebrates the encouraging progress made across the Anglican Communion to address key challenges to gender justice; and
4. supports UN Sustainable Development Goal #5: 'Achieve gender equality and empower all women and girls'; and
5. welcomes the Message to Our Church Leaders and the Anglican Consultative Council from IAWN's South Asia consultation and commends it to all Anglican provinces for consideration and action; and
6. requests the provinces of the Anglican Communion to
 - adopt the above resolutions
 - cooperate with the International Anglican Women's Network by nominating a provincial link to the Network, and offering financial support where possible
 - report to ACC-17 on progress.

Resolution 16.xx: C10 Continuing Indaba

The Anglican Consultative Council

1. commends the use of the learning from the Continuing Indaba process to:
 - strengthen relationships in local churches around the Anglican Communion,
 - enhance capacity to transform conflicts involving deeply-held differences,
 - support engagement between the provinces of the Anglican Communion to encourage new approaches to renewing relationships and our commitment to shared life and witness,
 - communicate how Anglicans understand and practice reconciliation so we can better help transform conflict and end violence between communities and among peoples where we find it around the world.
2. requests the Standing Committee to review the current resourcing of this work through the Anglican Communion Office.

Resolution 16.xx:C11 Anglican Alliance

The Anglican Consultative Council

1. affirms the work of the Anglican Alliance in
 - promoting a Christian paradigm of relief and development that responds to God's holistic mission in the world and upholds a vision of human dignity, flourishing, interdependence and self-reliance; and
 - strengthening the connectivity and sharing of prayer, capacity, skills and resources for development, relief and advocacy through the Anglican/Episcopal family of churches, agencies and networks as part of their intentional discipleship.
2. encourages the participation of all provinces of the Anglican Communion (and ACC members acting as a link, focal point and ambassador) in the activities of the Anglican Alliance, reaching the most remote and marginalised, by promoting two-way communication (through a variety of media and technology) of good news stories and models of good practice from around the Communion.

B Unity Faith & Order

Resolution 16.xx: C12 Anglican-Methodist relations

The Anglican Consultative Council

1. welcomes the report of the Anglican-Methodist International Commission for Unity and Mission—Into All the World: Being and Becoming Apostolic Churches (2014); and
2. commends the report to the Churches of the Anglican Communion for study, action and response; and
3. endorses the following four recommendations of AMICUM:
 - Requests the World Methodist Council and the Anglican Consultative Council to commend this report to their member churches for study, action and response.
 - In particular, requests the Councils to invite those churches which are considering moving into a relationship of communion to study and learn from the examples and precedents noted in Section 10 of this report, and to invite all churches to make use of the suggestions in the Toolkits of this report.
 - Requests the World Methodist Council and the Anglican Consultative Council to establish an Anglican-Methodist International Coordinating Committee to oversee and foster relationships between Methodist and Anglican member churches, with the following mandate:
 - a. To monitor and advise upon the development of Anglican-Methodist relations around the world, giving attention to their consistency with each other and with the self-understanding of the two communions,
 - b. To act as a catalyst for the development of Methodist and Anglican relations, and in particular for agreements of communion where these do not yet exist,
 - c. To encourage the growth of joint life and mission, especially where there are established agreements,
 - d. To arrange theological consultation as appropriate,
 - e. To reflect on the responses to this report received from the member churches of the two communions, and
 - f. To report on a regular basis to the two Councils.
 - Requests each Council to appoint five members representing the breadth of their respective Communion, with appropriate expertise, and to invite ecumenical participation in the committee as appropriate.

Resolution 16.xx: C16 Joint Declaration on the Doctrine of Justification

The Anglican Consultative Council

1. welcomes and affirms the substance of the Joint Declaration on the Doctrine of Justification (JDDJ), signed by Lutherans and Roman Catholics in 1999; and
2. recognizes that Anglicans have explored the doctrine of justification with both Lutherans and Roman Catholics; and
3. recognizes that Anglicans and Lutherans share a common understanding of God's justifying grace, as the Helsinki Report stated that we are accounted righteous and are made righteous before God only by grace through faith because of the merits of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, and not on account of our works or merits; and
4. recognizes that in 1986 the Anglican-Roman Catholic International Commission (ARCIC) produced a statement Salvation and the Church, which observed that our two Communion are agreed on the essential aspects of the doctrine of salvation and on the Church's role within it.
